Enzymes of Ancient & Precious Herbs

Salam Panja Extract

Known for its vigorous penile erection properties it is used to treat erectile dysfunction, male impotence, low sperm count, low testosterone level, etc.

Satavari

Known for libido-enhancing effects, also it is most popular Ayurvedic herb used for menopausal transition. Active Phytoestrogens have amazing hormone-balancing effect.

Safed Musli

Known for its potential to enhance libido, improve sperm count and support overall reproductive function.

Kesar Extract

Known for enhancing sexual health by boosting libido, improving mood and promoting overall well-being. It increases dopamine levels in the brain.

Panax Ginseng Extract

Known for boosting sex drive through neural signals, it improves libido & satisfaction, contains ginsenosides that can act like estrogen and boost sexual desire in females.

Kaunch Extract

Known for its aphrodisiac properties-it helps to increase the sperm count and movement. It also helps to increase the production and quantity of semen.

Peak Performance Pack

Adaptogenic Effects:

With adaptogens, hormone levels return to a state of balance, enhancing mood and these boost libido & sexual function.
